EXPERIENCE TWO OF TASMANIA'S TOP TEN MUST-SEE LOCATIONS ON OUR DAY TOUR

Mount Field is full of natural wonders, and spectacular wildlife such as Wallabies, the platypus, and the echidna. In the afternoon consider exploring some options such as Salmon Ponds, Plenty Cider or Tasmania's first rum distillery anchored in a former asylum. Here, you enjoy various tastings or a leisurely lunch before heading to the iconic MONA or returning to Hobart.

SOME OF THE THINGS YOU CAN EXPECT TO SEE AND DO:

- Explore the towering waterfalls, Russell falls, Horseshoe falls
- Walk amongst the tallest flowering trees in the world
- Nature walks within a World Heritage area
- Unique wildlife (wallabies, platypus, echidnas and rare bird species)
- MONA, the largest privately owned museum in the Southern Hemisphere
- Salmon Ponds Heritage Hatchery and Gardens (optional)
- Local produce and tastings of berries, craft cider and spirits (alcoholic + non-alcoholic)

We offer 11 pickup locations in and around the Hobart CBD. See website. 6-8 hour tour. Pickups start prior to 9:30 am and finish at 3:30 or 5:30 pm.

National parks pass, tastings, MONA fees not included. There are opportunities throughout the day to buy food and drinks.

$110.00 Hobart to Mount Field 9:30 am-3:30 pm.
